Importation of Human and Animal Food Food and Drug Administration Prior Notice (FDA PN)

1 Reduce filing time by 50%

Our platform streamlines product populations by enabling bulk entry and automatically generates multiple FDA PN transactions.

2 Enhanced filing accuracy

Eliminate duplicate data entries and reduce errors through a comprehensive system validation.

3 Enjoy immediate responses

Submit FDA PN any time and act on responses immediately upon receiving replies from FDA.

Who needs this service?

- Importers of human or animal food, beverage and dietary supplements.

What happens if an applicable shipment fails to file Prior Notice?

- The shipment will likely be detained at the U.S. port of entry and the food is subject to refusal.
- These shipments may be returned to the shipper or destroyed.
- FDA considers not filing Prior Notice a "Prohibited Act," subject to civil and criminal charges.

What information must be included for food shipments?

- FDA food facility registration no.
- Name and address of the manufacturer.
- Last place the product was stored, packed or processed.

When must the data be submitted?

- Air: At least 4 hours prior to arrival in the U.S.
- Highway: At least 2 hours prior to arrival in the U.S.
- Ocean: At least 8 hours prior to arrival in the U.S.
- Rail: At least 4 hours prior to arrival in the U.S.

Export Compliance · Automated Export System (AES)

1 Customizable suite of services to meet your business needs

Submit EEI filings via a powerful web-based option that allows you to enter information on an intuitive web interface or through an EDI connection.

2 Multiple communication formats

Exporters can seamlessly communicate with U.S. CBP and transmit AES through ANSI X.12, CBP proprietary formats or existing mainframe connections.

3 Enhanced filing accuracy

Submit your EEI filings through our platform and benefit from auto-validated data pre-submission. Get instant feedback on any incorrect data.

Who needs this service?

- U.S. exporters

What data needs to be submitted?

- Electronic Export Information (EEI) - information about the sender of the shipment, the receiver of the goods, and the contents of the cargo.

When must the data be submitted?

- Air: At least 2 hours before departure.
- Highway: At least 1 hour prior to the arrival at the border.
- Ocean: At least 24 hours prior to loading.

When is the filing required?

- An EEI filing is required when the value of the commodity classified under each Schedule B number is greater than $2,500, destined for countries other than Canada.
- It is also required if an export license is needed for a shipment.
